

AWARD DESCRIPTION

This award recognises a community club who has enthusiastically worked to connect more people to Taekwondo, positively promote social inclusion in Taekwondo that is non-discriminatory, and provide a safe and encouraging club culture. This award is presented to one club each year.

NOMINATION TYPE

This award is peer nominated and is open for nomination by any current Australian Taekwondo affiliated club and their respective members.

NOMINEE ELIGIBILITY

- A financial member club of Australian Taekwondo for the current season
- The club has not been subject to any sanctions and/or suspensions by Australian Taekwondo during the current season.
- The club is fully compliant with Australian Taekwondo's governance requirements

SELECTION CRITERIA

This information is what the nomination will be assessed on and is a critical part of the review process.

- Evidence of how the club is Connecting Everybody to Taekwondo by creating positive, inclusive experiences for anyone who wants to participate.
- Evidence of how the club is engaging and empowering women and girls as participants and leaders at their club.
- Evidence of how the club ensures good governance practices and promoting a safe club culture.
- Evidence of how the club has implemented a participation program such as Taekwondo Kickstarters, Para-Taekwondo, Fighting Falls, Women's Self Defence etc
- Any additional information to support the nomination.

SELECTION PROCESS

Nominations will be assessed against the above selection criteria. Consultation with the relevant state association/s may be required before recommendation to the Australian Taekwondo Board for approval.